or leave remaining work for the Winter exhibition.

As a current financial member of the gallery, you are invited to enter your work to be for sale in the gallery shop area. This includes jewelry, ceramics, small sculptures, fabric art, glassware and unframed artworks. 3-Dimensional work must fit on the gallery shelving, maximum 27cm in width + height. Jewelry and delicate items are housed in the locked glass display cabinets. There is an art display rack for unframed artworks. Please ensure your 2024 or life membership has been paid.

If you have completed the entry form on your computer, please email it to the gallery. Otherwise bring it when you deliver your items.

You can change or top up your sold work at any time, preferably at start or end of exhibitions, unless stocks are low and need topping up. Always bring in a new form with new work. Proper recording of all deliveries is important as it will ensure that you get paid for all your sales. Payment for any sold items will be made within a couple of weeks, after the exhibition has finished or earlier. Maximum display period for any one item is 12 months.

Jewelry is limited to 40 items per artist at any one time. Labelled with Initials+number+price.

Ceramics, Woodwork, Glassware and other shelf items to 20. All work must have a sticker or label with your initial and item number and retail price on the back or/and where it is visible without handling the item.

Unframed Artwork - 6 in total per artist. Original paintings & drawings, photographs and handmade prints. Size A4-max 90x60cm. Artwork on a backing board (e.g. foam core), with or without mount, wrapped in cellophane. Fully labelled on the back with: Initials+number+price. Artist name and title for buyer information.

The gallery reserves the right to not accept any work, if deemed unsuitable for the gallery shop All items will have a 25% commission to the Bright Art Gallery included in the retail price.
